

SENATE BILL 3781

By Tate

AN ACT, relative to the civil rights museum.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. The commissioner of finance and administration may negotiate with the National Civil Rights Museum, in Shelby County, to develop terms under which the state would assume ownership and responsibility for the museum. The commissioner shall report on the status of such negotiations to the 106th general assembly no later than February 1, 2009.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
